

The Transmission of the Bible to English

Hebrew Manuscript	39 Books	1450-500 B.C.
Septuagint (Greek Manuscript)	53 Books with Apocrypha	200 B.C.
New Testament (Greek)	27 Books	40-100 A.D.
Jerome Vulgate (Latin) (Accepted by the Roman Church in 900 A.D.)	80 Books with Apocrypha	90 A.D.
Translated to over 500 languages by 400 A.D.
The only language allowed was Latin by 600 A.D.
Wycliffe (Middle English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1384 A.D.
Gutenberg Printing Press Invented in 1455 A.D.
Erasmus Greek Latin New Testament	27 Books	1516 A.D.
Luthers's New Testament (German)	27 Books	1522 A.D.
Tyndale's New Testament (English)	27 Books	1525 A.D.
Coverdale Bible (English) (Was first printed in English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1535 A.D.
Matthew's Bible (English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1537 A.D.
Great Bible (English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1539 A.D.
Geneva Bible (English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1560 A.D.
Bishop's Bible (English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1568 A.D.
King James Bible (English)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1611 A.D.
King James (Aitken/American)	66 Books	1782 A.D.
King James (Collins/American)	80 Books with Apocrypha	1791 A.D.

(From The Forbidden Book: The History of the English Bible by Dr. Craig Lampe.)